

JD Retail Click & Collect Policy

Document Version: 1.0

Last Updated: 20 July 2026

Click & Collect Service

Our Click & Collect service allows customers to order products online and collect them from participating retail stores.

This service is available at selected locations across the UK.

Eligibility

Click & Collect is available only for:

- Products currently in stock
- Participating stores
- Orders successfully paid online

Availability depends on local store inventory.

Collection Time

Estimated collection times are:

Service	Collection Time
Standard Click & Collect Same Day	(if ordered before 2 PM)
Next Day Collection	Orders placed after 2 PM

Customers will receive an email notification once the order is ready for collection.

Required Documents

Customers must present:

- Order Confirmation Email
- Valid Photo Identification

Accepted forms of ID include:

- Driving Licence
- Passport
- National Identity Card

Collection Window

Orders must be collected within 7 calendar days after receiving the "Ready for Collection" notification.

Orders not collected within this period may be cancelled and refunded.

Third-Party Collection

A third party may collect the order if they provide:

- Copy of the customer's Order Confirmation
 - Written authorisation from the customer
 - Their own valid Photo ID

Product Availability

Although inventory is updated regularly, stock levels may occasionally change due to:

- Simultaneous purchases
- Stock transfers
- Inventory adjustments

If an item becomes unavailable before collection, customers will be notified and offered:

- Alternative product
 - Store transfer (where available)
 - Full refund

Store Transfers

Where possible, products may be transferred between participating stores.

Estimated transfer time:

2–4 Business Days

Customers will receive updated collection information by email.

Order Changes

After placing a Click & Collect order, customers may:

- Cancel the order before collection.

- Change the collection store only if the order has not yet been prepared.
